

The legend tells of one poor girl who wanted a gift to bring which she could lay in front of church, in honor of our king. She picked a small bouquet of weeds. It was all she had to give. She prayed that it was good enough. She prayed the flowers would live. And as she placed them in the church for everyone to see, the blossoms turned to brighter red, as lovely as could be.

Dear Jesus, I've a gift to bring to lay before your throne. It is my small and humble heart. Please use it for your own. I pray that you will bless my gift so that it grows to be a place wherein Your love can bloom for all the world to see.

First United Methodist Church

December 16, 2018

Poinsettias given in loving memory of:

Elizabeth Alexander by Glenn and Helen Alexander

Horace and Villa Webb by Glenn and Helen Alexander

Peggy and Hal Leak by Mary Jane, Hal, and Tommy

Doc and Bright Covington by Mary Jane, Hal, and Tommy

Billy and Doris Capps by Carlyle and Sue Capps

Mary Ellen Kindley by Nathan and Marie Davis

(2) Anna and Jim Gordon by Your Kids and Grandkids

Walter Coggin Kelly by Genevra B. Kelly

Mary Ellen Kindley by G.R. Kindley and Family

Fred Harrison by Lonnie and Cheryl McCaskill

Neil McCullough by Linda S. McCullough

My Parents, John and Helen Baker, by Cornelia McKenzie

My Brothers, John, Clayton, and Carl Baker, by Cornelia McKenzie

Charles Munn by Sharon Munn

Esther Rhinard by Keith Rhinard

Harry and Betty Allison by LeeAnne Sago

Richard and Ann Sago by LeeAnne Sago

Our Dads, Albert Lee and O. Brown Smith, by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Our Grandparents by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thomas, Jr. by Deborah Thomas

Eva Thomas by John W. Thomas III

Poinsettias given in Honor of:

Martha Davis Gandy by Glenn and Helen Alexander

Helen Goodman by Glenn and Helen Alexander

Our Grandparents by Adam and Mason Bailey

Martha H. Crump by Cassandra Crump

Helen Alexander by Ledbetter Men's Bible Class

W. Kevin Mabe by Wiley and Judy Mabe

Ellen K. Mabe by Wiley and Judy Mabe

Jason N. Mabe by Wiley and Judy Mabe

Christy L. Mabe by Wiley and Judy Mabe

Martha Brigman by John and Eleanor Page

Allen and Cindy Bingham by Daphne and Thomas Smith

G. R. Kindley by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Cooper McLaurin by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Our moms, Dathia Lee and Julia Smith, by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Roger and Sankie Staley by Daphne and Thomas Smith

Shelia and Steve Webb by Daphne and Thomas Smith