OPPORTUNITIES FOR FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP - MARK YOUR CALENDARS:
July 12 - Dr. Michael Hobbs will be here to preach. Following the worship service, lunch will be catered by Seaboard Station. This will be a good time to speak with Michael and Gaye. All are invited to stay for lunch.

July 19 - Patrick Ledford has been accepted to attend Duke Divinity School this fall. The Divinity School has a program of matching grants to help students with their tuition. $1,000 raised will be matched by Duke. Also, as Patrick enters the candidacy program to become a UM pastor, he will incur expenses to sign up for that program. The proceeds from this BBQ lunch will go to help Patrick with these expenses. Again, all are invited to stay for lunch and support "one of our own" as he enters the ministry process.

Quilting for the Community would like to thank everyone who donated sheets, material, and used linens to allow us to make 400 rice and bean bags for Haiti. We are grateful for your support of our endeavor.
Sincerely, Cheryl, Linda, Sherry, and Dorothy

Ponder this...

Now it is faith to believe that which you do not yet see;
and the reward of faith is to see that which you believe.

Augustine

The people of Jesus' hometown could not recognize Jesus' greatness. I am reminded of Leonard Bernstein's father, who had not given his son much encouragement in his musical career. Later in life, after Leonard had become famous, someone asked his father why he had been so unwilling to encourage his son's musical genius. The father replied, "How was I to know that he would grow up to be Leonard Bernstein?"
